

KDA Trail Ride and Cook Out

Join fellow KDA Members at High Trail Training in beautiful Boston, Kentucky for a special trail riding event!

October 30, 2010

10 am Morning rides start

11 am to 2 pm Lunch Served (Chicken, Hamburgers, Brats, Beverages, and sides provided—generous portions)

4 pm Wrap-up riding

Cost: $15 for the luncheon

*Current Coggins & KY Health Certificate
Mandatory—VERY Ltd Stalling Available*

High Trail Training is a private farm that is not open for trail riding to the general public. Personal friends, Rod & Ruth McCracken, are opening up their trails for KDA Members to experience for the day. They maintain over 90 wooded acres of well maintained logging trails. For those who like a challenge, High Trial is home to the highest point in Nelson County and there is a trail that goes to the top!

Costumes welcome!

Join Charli Stevens and her gelding Baretini at High Trail on October 30. If you do not want to bring a horse out this year, join us for socializing and lunch! The food and company will be great!

RSVP to: charastev@yahoo.com with person and horse count.

High Trail Training is located approximately 10 minutes off of the Bluegrass Parkway (exit 10).

For directions, link to: http://www.htatraining.com/Contact_HTA.html

Yahoo! Maps will show you the way!

(Watermark background photo of HTT Trails courtesy of Rod McCracken.)

